The Greenlee Tourism Association is pleased to showcase poetry from Kalen Reyes, a new member of Greenlee Tourism Association Board of Directors. Kalen brings a thoughtful perspective, a deep appreciation for community, and a gift for storytelling that reflects the spirit and resilience of the places we call home.

Kalen's original poem, "Until the Mountain Learns My Name," is a powerful reflection on courage, purpose, and finding light even in life's most challenging seasons and explores themes of perseverance, faith, hope, and the beauty found in life's journey.

We are honored to share her work and look forward to the creativity, insight, and passion she will bring to the Greenlee Tourism Association as we continue celebrating and promoting the remarkable landscapes, history, and communities of Greenlee County.

Until the Mountain Learns My Name

-Kalen Reyes

Once, I courted tomorrow
as though hope were a season waiting just beyond the bend.

Next year..
Next month...
When the wind is gentler....
When the valley loosens its grip.....

Then I discovered the mountain has no intention of becoming smaller.

It is I who have become acquainted with ascent.

The world has admired
the wildflowers gathered in my hands, never noticing
the thorns still woven through my palms.

So often I clothed my sorrow in gratitude,
not because grief was absent,
but because I feared to crown it sovereign over my days.

Yet even unnamed,
it carried weight.

Even silent,
it bled.

Still -

there is a river
no drought persuades to cease, a flame
no tempest has negotiated into surrender.

Its name is not mine.

It is the breath of God - moving through fractured vessels, teaching broken reeds

to sing against the wind.

If I must dwell within the storm, let me become the stillness at its center.

If I must walk the battlefield,
let my feet remember they were fashioned first for holy ground.

Not to conquer,
but to cultivate.
Not to condemn,
but to leave gardens
where others expected scars.

I cannot promise
that every prayer will resemble rescue, nor every dawn
the ending I imagined.

Still, I have learned that Providence is not measured by the absence of thunder, but by the Voice
that outlives it.

So let the night gather all the shadows it can carry.

I have no quarrel with the darkness.
We have become familiar,
yet I have never walked it alone.
There has always been a lamp beyond my own keeping.

I have seen how morning rehearses itself long before the horizon believes.

So, should these hands
bear both burden and blessing,
let them remain open.

For Love has never asked me to wait until the war is over.

Only
to keep becoming light where the battle cannot imagine it belongs.

Safety net becomes Community Bridge

~by Akos Kovach

Friends, neighbors and countrymen – lend us your attention~!

Since early at the beginning of this year an effort to pull together a consortium of not only businesses and nonprofit organizations, but also churches, cities, towns and others that see the need for a way to address homelessness, food shortages, gas money to get back and forth to work until the first paycheck comes through. Others we see are facing a crisis, while more fear loneliness and abandonment.

We called the effort 'the safety net' but one of our Board Members, Kalen Reyes, found the right words to describe how to come together in a dynamic manner.

What does this have to do with Tourism?

Each town, every city all counties want visitors and guests to feel welcome and embraced by genuine hospitality. Here we are today offering an idea of hope, and an actual game plan to succeed in assisting those in need while showcasing the inner strength and comradery that truly exists in rural areas.

Sure we want you to come visit, spend some time, maybe a little money while visiting us. But there is more to 'us' than just a hotel, or restaurant, a bowling alley or paint ball business. "Us" means real people who serve as clerks, guides, shop keepers, first responders and guess what? We all have families and friends we want to come see us, to visit us.

So please take some time reading the Discover Greenlee Newsletter, check out the flyers from around this amazing region that show you events and activities often hidden from view due to a lack of forming that 'community bridge'.

Make suggestions. Participate. Volunteer. Visit.

Thank you,

Akos Kovach, Greenlee County Tourism Assn Chair

The Greenlee Community Bridge

CONNECTING PEOPLE.
STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY.

"Rivers do not ask whether one stream is more important than another. Each simply carries what it can until, together, they become something capable of sustaining life far beyond themselves. Communities are much the same."

No one carries every burden. Together, we carry one another.

WHO WE ARE

Many streams.
One community.

- SCHOOLS
- CHURCHES
- HEALTHCARE & BEHAVIORAL HEALTH
- LAW ENFORCEMENT & PUBLIC SAFETY
- FIRE & EMS
- NONPROFITS & COMMUNITY SERVICES
- BUSINESSES
- VOLUNTEERS & COMMUNITY GROUPS
- LOCAL GOVERNMENT & TOWNS
- FAITH, RECOVERY, & SUPPORT PROGRAMS
- FOOD BANKS, COMMUNITY CLOSET, & BASIC NEEDS
- LIBRARIES, SENIOR SERVICES & MORE

Each carries what they can.
Together, we change lives.

HOW WE DO IT – TOGETHER

THE IMPACT

When we connect,
everyone benefits.

- FAMILIES FIND HELP SOONER
- VOLUNTEERS FIND MEANINGFUL WAYS TO SERVE
- ORGANIZATIONS KNOW AND SUPPORT ONE ANOTHER
- FEWER PEOPLE FALL THROUGH THE CRACKS
- A STRONGER, MORE RESILIENT GREENLEE COUNTY

Perhaps the measure of a community is not how rarely hardship visits its people, but how quickly no one has to face it alone.

An Invitation

This is not a finished plan. It is the beginning of a conversation. The best ideas will come from listening to one another. The strongest bridges are never built from one side alone. If this vision holds any truth, it belongs to all of us.

May this be the beginning of a conversation. And, in time, a few more bridges.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

You don't have to do everything. Just something.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

KEEP BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

Together, we build more than programs—we build community.

LET'S BUILD THE BRIDGE TOGETHER. GREENLEE COUNTY IS STRONGER TOGETHER.

Interested in being part of this initiative? Let's talk.

The Greenlee Community Bridge

Building Stronger Connections. Creating Stronger Communities

"No one organization can meet every need. But together, we can."

Every day across Greenlee County, people quietly make a difference.

A teacher notices a struggling student. A nurse comforts a worried family. A deputy stays a little longer after a difficult call. A pastor answers the phone after hours.

Volunteers fill food boxes, deliver meals, mentor youth, and offer hope.

These acts may seem small on their own, but together they create the foundation of a caring community.

The Greenlee Community Bridge is an invitation to strengthen those connections—not by creating another organization, but by helping the organizations we already have work together more effectively.

Why This Matters

When families face challenges, they rarely need just one service.

Someone experiencing a mental health crisis may also need transportation, food, childcare, employment assistance, or simply someone willing to listen.

A senior may need medical care, a meal, and regular companionship.

A family facing hardship often doesn't know where to begin.

The resources already exist throughout Greenlee County. The challenge is making those resources easier to find and helping organizations connect people to the right support at the right time.

Our Vision

Imagine a Greenlee County where:

- Families find help sooner.
- Teachers know who to call before a crisis develops.
- First responders have current resource information at their fingertips.
- Churches, nonprofits, healthcare providers, schools, businesses, and local governments know one another personally.
- Volunteers easily discover where they are needed.
- Organizations work together instead of working in isolation.

Each organization remains independent while becoming stronger through collaboration.

How We Begin

The Greenlee Community Bridge starts with five simple steps:

1. Listen

Bring community leaders, organizations, and volunteers together to build relationships and understand local needs.

2. Connect

Create a shared, up-to-date directory of community resources that everyone can access and trust.

3. Refer

Strengthen communication so people find the right help more quickly.

4. Collaborate

Partner on projects, events, and solutions that improve life throughout Greenlee County.

5. Grow

Meet regularly to share ideas, celebrate successes, identify gaps, and continue building relationships.

Success Looks Like...

Success isn't measured by the number of meetings or the size of a directory.

Success is measured when:

- Families receive help before problems become crises.
- Organizations confidently refer people to one another.
- Volunteers find meaningful opportunities to serve.
- New partnerships emerge.
- Fewer people fall through the cracks.
- More neighbors know they are not alone.

An Invitation

This is not a finished plan.

It is the beginning of a conversation.

The Greenlee Community Bridge belongs to everyone who cares about the future of our communities—schools, churches, healthcare providers, first responders, businesses, nonprofits, civic organizations, volunteers, and neighbors.

Everyone brings unique experience. Everyone has something to contribute.

You don't have to solve every problem.

You simply have to bring what you can.

Together, we can build stronger relationships, stronger organizations, and a stronger Greenlee County.

Let's build the bridge—together.
